THE SUPPORT
YOU NEED TO BECOME YOUR SCHOOL'S CHANGE AGENT

Sustainable change starts with you!

You are invited to the online training Sustainable Development and SDGs in Vocational Education organized by the Stairway to SDG consortium, co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme of the European Union. This online teacher training will be organized by Odisee University of Applied Sciences (Center for Sustainable Entrepreneurship) and GRYD on 25 February, 3 March and 11 March 2021.

Discover the program at the end of this invitation and SUBSCRIBE now to take part in this free international online training.

How can you, as a vocational teacher, prepare your students for a changing world? And how can your school contribute to sustainable development and the SDGs? Be inspired by Bart Henssen, Head of the Odisee Center for Sustainable Entrepreneurship and learnings from vocational education centers and ngo's from 6 European countries. You will learn how to contribute to sustainable development at an individual and at the organizational level and how to work with sustainability competencies such as systems thinking and future thinking. You will get a preview of a brand new online platform and app to work with SDGs in you classroom.

Enjoy meeting likeminded teachers from all over Europe. We look forward to meet you!
